Alexandra Ballet is proud to present this ethereal masterpiece of the Romantic Era to the St. Louis community. This full length ballet tells the classic tale of love and betrayal, forgiveness and redemption, with staging by renowned choreographer Marek Cholewa, and the haunting musical score by Adolph Adam.

Popular guest artists Kristi Capps and Anthony Krutzkamp, Cincinnati Ballet Principal Dancers, return to St. Louis and Alexandra Ballet once again to perform the two lead roles as Giselle and Albrecht. In addition, AB alumnae will appear with the Company in several roles; Agatha Schmank (courtesy Butler Ballet in Indianapolis) as Myrtha, Queen of the Wilis, Rachel Butchko (Lindenwood University) as Bathilde, and alumna mother Ann-Marie Ruhlin in a reprisal of her 2000 portrayal of Giselle's mother, Berthe.
