Alexandra Ballet will be Dancing in the Streets

September 7, 2013: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alexandra Ballet will be performing on the main stage at Dancing in the Streets on Saturday, September 21st. The company will be part of the seventh annual festival celebrating dance in the Grand Center Arts and Entertainment District. Dancing in the Streets, sponsored by Wells Fargo Advisors, features nearly 1,000 dancers from 80 local and regional dance companies. The free, outdoor festival consists of a wide variety of dance performances including tap, ballet, modern and jazz, as well as salsa, hip hop, break dancing and many more. Performances are scheduled from 1 to 6:30 pm, followed by live music and open dance from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Alexandra Ballet will be presenting the “Tarentella” from Napoli. Denmark’s most popular ballet, it is an exuberant example of Bournonville’s unpretentious choreography, with music by Helsted, and restaged by Alexandra Ballet’s very own CiCi Houston. The company will perform at ~3:00pm on the Washington Stage across from the Fabulous Fox Theatre.

Don’t miss Alexandra Ballet’s, “Tarentella” from Napoli and all the exciting festivities of the Grand Center’s Dancing in the Streets.
